It would be good to have a deadline for submittal of the required information to the City prior to the event.

Hi,
The question is more along the line of the deadline for submittal to the city prior to the event.
Thanks
Sharon

Sharon,

The City could adopt a timeframe, but doesn't have to. I would argue that the ordinance already has a timeframe, which is the duration of the organized event. A person can't be "participating in an organized event" after the event has ended.

Hi,

The council asked if we need to have a timeframe in the ordinance. See highlighted yellow below.

Thanks
