TITLE XI: BUSINESS REGULATIONS / CHAPTER 115: PEDDLERS, SOLICITORS, AND TRANSIENT MERCHANTS / § 115.01 PURPOSE.

§ 115.01 PURPOSE.

The city finds that in some cases unscrupulous individuals have posed or may pose as legitimate peddlers and solicitors for the purpose of harassment, nuisance, theft, and other unlawful acts committed against residents of the city. The purpose of this chapter is to impose reasonable regulations and restrictions on peddlers and solicitors so as to prevent illegitimate individuals who may be engaged in unlawful activities from posing as legitimate peddlers and solicitors. This chapter is not intended to interfere with legitimated business activities, whether local or interstate.

The tract of city-owned land defined as the parking lot for Rick Doyle Memorial Field, is hereby designated and established as the city market for the barter and sale of meat, fruit, vegetables, garden truck and other products of the farm, garden, greenhouse, apiary or of the forest, and other approved products, subject to all the regulations and provisions of this chapter, to all other laws and ordinances relative thereto, and to such other rules and regulations governing the same that may be promulgated and posted by the city.

NON-COMMERCIAL DOOR-TO-DOOR ADVOCATE. A person who goes door-to-door for the primary purpose of disseminating religious, political, social, or other ideological beliefs. PEDDLER. A person who goes from house-to-house, door-to-door, business-to-business, street-to-street, or any other type of place-to-place movement, for the purpose of offering for sale, displaying for exposing for sale, selling or attempting to sell, and delivering immediately upon sale, the goods, wares, products, merchandise, or other personnel property that the person is carrying or otherwise transporting. For purpose of this chapter, the term PEDDLER shall have the same common meaning as the term HAWKER. The term PEDDLER shall not apply to any persons who may sell or peddle the products of farm or garden occupied and cultivated by themselves or who sells at a stand at the Farmers Market.

PERSON. Any natural individual, group, organization, corporation, partnership, or similar association.

PROFESSIONAL FUNDRAISER. Any person, including a corporation or other entity, who, for compensation, performs any solicitations or other services for a religious, political, social, or other charitable organization.

The absence of samples or catalogs shall not remove a person from the scope of this provision if the actual purpose of the person's activity is to obtain or attempt to obtain orders as discussed above. For purposes of this chapter, the term SOLICITOR shall have the same meaning as the term CANVASSER.

TRANSIENT MERCHANT. If the application is complete, the City Clerk must order any investigation, including background checks, necessary to verify the information provided with the application. (2) No license shall be required for any person going from house-to-house, door-to-door, business-to-business, street-to-street, or any other type of place-to-place movement for the primary purpose of exercising that person's state or federal constitutional rights, such as the freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion, and the like. This exemption will not apply if the person's exercise of constitutional rights is merely incidental to what would properly be considered a commercial activity.

(C) Notice. Prior to revoking or suspending any license issued under this chapter, the city shall provide a license holder with written notice of the alleged violations and inform the licensee of his or her right to a hearing on the alleged violation. Notice shall be delivered in person or by mail to the permanent residential address listed on the license application, or if no residential address is listed, to the business address provided on the license application.

(D) Public hearing. Upon receiving the notice provided in division (C) of this section, the licensee shall have the right to request a public hearing. If no request for a hearing is received by the City Clerk within 10 days following the service of the notice, the city may proceed with the suspension or revocation. For the purpose of a mailed notice, service shall be considered complete as of the date the notice is placed in the mail.
